USA vs. ALVARO MURILLO

Docket No.: CR08-00032(C)-SVW

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it would impose a financial hardship on his family given the length of imprisonment and the fact defendant's wife may have a reduced ability to earn income due to her illness.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, October 12, 2009. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at:

Royal Federal Building
255 East Temple Street
Los Angeles, California 90012

The bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

Defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court imposes a sentence to reflect the seriousness of the offense, promote the respect for the law and deter others who may have the inclination. The Court takes into consideration the severity of the offense in addition to the fact defendant served this country honorably and his police department for at least some of the time. The Court also recognizes the hardship imposed on his family.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
